“Vice-Chancellor” means the academic head and chief executive and accounting officer of the University.

2. PREAMBLE

Nelson Mandela University resulted from the merger of its legacy institutions, being the former University of Port Elizabeth (into which the Port Elizabeth campus of the former Vista University was incorporated) and the Port Elizabeth Technikon.

The Nelson Mandela University Alumni Association was established in accordance with the Higher Education Act, No. 101 of 1997 as a statutory structure and body of alumni of the University.

The University's alumni (including those of its legacy institutions) is an important role player to promote the best interests, image and reputation of the University and together with other membership categories of the Association act in accordance with the vision, mission and values of the University.

Members of the Association represent the global footprint of the University and strive to contribute to positively changing the world through their individual and collective efforts.

3. NAME AND STATUS OF ALUMNI ASSOCIATION

3.1 The Alumni Association is known as the Alumni Association of Nelson Mandela University (hereafter referred to as the Association).

3.2 The Association is recognised by the Council as a structure of the University in terms of paragraph 3(1) of the Statute.

4. MISSION

The Association supports and enhances the realisation of the University's vision and mission through maintaining and expanding positive relationships with its members and through utilising and maximising their expertise, goodwill and influence in support of the University.

5. GOALS AND FUNCTIONS

5.1 The goals of the Association are:

5.1.1 To enhance the image of the Association both inside and outside the University community as –

- (a) an important stakeholder body of the University; and
- (b) an asset to the University to support the realisation of the University's vision, mission and goals.

5.1.2 To foster loyalty to and pride in the University among members through effective communication so that they may positively influence others.

5.1.3 To provide and foster the provision of opportunities for members to contribute in financial and other meaningful ways to the advancement of the University.

5.1.4 To promote, protect and maintain the rights of the Association.

- 5.1.5 To promote the ideals and purpose of the University to constituencies and stakeholders of the University.
- 5.2 The Association must establish an Executive Committee of the Association and may establish such other structures as it deems expedient to achieve the goals of the Association.
- 5.3 The Association may enter into co-operation agreements with the Nelson Mandela University Trust, the Student Alumni Society or other structures in order to achieve any mutual goals and objectives.
- 5.4 The Association elects –
 - 5.4.1 two (2) members to the Council; and
 - 5.4.2 one (1) member to the Institutional Forum in accordance with the provisions of paragraphs 11 and 12, respectively.
- 5.5 The Association may discuss and state its opinion on any matter relating to the University, including matters referred to it by the Council for its input.
- 5.6 The Association must submit a copy of the resolutions of the Association, and a statement of such matters as the Association may determine, to the Chairpersons of the Council and Senate for the information of the Council and Senate.

6. MEMBERSHIP

- 6.1 The Association consists of –
 - 6.1.1 the Vice-Chancellor and members of the Extended Management Committee;

- 9.4 A nomination, together with an abridged curriculum vitae of the nominee, must be lodged with the Secretary on a date determined by him or her.
- 9.5 Each nomination must be signed by at least three (3) members of the Association and countersigned by the nominee to denote his or her acceptance of the nomination.
- 9.6 If only one (1) candidate is nominated for one of the offices, the Secretary declares such person to be duly elected. If more than one candidate is nominated for one of the offices, an election is held at a meeting of the Association.
- 9.7 The President, Vice-President and Treasurer are elected by closed ballot by a simple majority of the members present at a meeting of the Association, provided that in the event that none of the nominees for a portfolio acquired a simple majority of the vote of the members present, a second round of voting will take place in order to elect the candidate from the two nominees who acquired the highest number of votes in the first round. Furthermore, in the event of a tie of votes, the outcome will be determined by lot at the discretion of the Chairperson.
- 9.8 The Vice-Chancellor or his/her nominee acts for the duration of the election of the President as Chairperson of the meeting.

10. ELECTION OF MEMBERS TO EXECUTIVE COMMITTEE OF THE ASSOCIATION

- 10.1 The provisions of paragraphs 9.1 to 9.7 apply with the necessary changes to the election of four (4) members to the Executive Committee contemplated in subparagraph 15.1.1 (e) for a period of office of three (3) years.
- 10.2 In the event of a vacancy occurring during the term of office of any of the four members, the Executive Committee may designate a member to fill such vacancy for the remainder of the period of office concerned.

11. ELECTION OF MEMBERS TO COUNCIL

- 11.1 The Statute provides for the election of two (2) members of the Association to the Council for a period of office of four (4) years, on the understanding that the Council determines the knowledge and experience required of such members to be elected to the Council.
- 11.2 The provisions of paragraphs 9.1 to 9.7 apply with the necessary changes to the election of a member of the Association to the Council; provided that such member –
 - 11.2.1 may not be an employee or student of Nelson Mandela University; or
 - 11.2.2 may not have a contractual relationship with the University in terms of which he or she receives regular remuneration.

12. ELECTION OF MEMBER TO THE INSTITUTIONAL FORUM

- 12.1 The Statute provides for the election of one (1) member of the Association to the Institutional Forum for a period of office of three (3) years.
- 12.2 The provisions of paragraphs 9.1 to 9.7 apply with the necessary changes to the election of a member of the Association to the Institutional Forum.

13. MEETINGS

- 13.1 Meetings of the Association are held at the seat of the University.
- 13.2 Notwithstanding the provisions of paragraph 13.1 above, the Executive Committee may convene its meeting(s) or meetings of the Association wholly or partly by means of electronic communication provided that the method of electronic communication that is employed enables all participants in that meeting to communicate concurrently with each other without an intermediary.
- 13.3 A meeting of the Association or Executive Committee may be held in a manner and at a place agreed upon by the Executive Committee of the Association.
- 13.4 Where a meeting is held in accordance with the provisions of paragraph 13.2 above, the Secretary of the Association shall, in consultation with the President, establish and subsequently distribute the procedures for the conduct of the meeting, including elective meetings and procedures in line with paragraphs 9 & 13.
- 13.5 Any expenses that a person incurs in attending any meeting convened in terms of paragraph 13.1 will be for the cost of the attendee.
- 13.6 An Annual General Meeting will normally be held in May, but not later than September.
 - 13.6.1 Notice of such meeting must be advertised at least three (3) weeks or twenty-one (21) week days before the date of the meeting by means of electronic mail to members, on the webpage of the Association, social media platforms and in any other manner deemed appropriate by the Secretary of the Association.

- 13.6.2 Before any person may attend or participate in a meeting of the Association that -
- (a) a person must present reasonably satisfactory identification such as a South African identity document or passport and
 - (b) the person presiding at the meeting must be reasonably satisfied that a participant's right to attend and participate has been reasonably verified.
- 13.6.3 A member who wishes to raise a matter at the meeting must submit such matter in writing to the Secretary of the Association at least one (1) week or seven (7) week days before the date of the meeting.
- 13.7 A special meeting of the Association –
- 13.7.1 may be convened by the President, after consultation with the Executive Committee of the Association, if and when required;
 - 13.7.2 must be convened by the President, after consultation with the Executive Committee, upon a written request signed by at least twenty-five (25) members, stating the purpose of the meeting in the request;
 - 13.7.3 must be held within thirty (30) days after receiving a written request;
 - 13.7.4 must be advertised to members not less than five (5) business days before the planned meeting; and
 - 13.7.5 may not address any matter other than those for which the meeting is convened.
- 13.8 The President of the Association acts as Chairperson at meetings of the Association. In the absence of the President from any meeting of the Association, the Vice-President presides at such meetings. In the absence of both the President and the Vice-President from any meeting, the Secretary of the Association initiates an election for an acting Chairperson for such meetings from among the members present.
- 13.9 Forty (40) members constitute a quorum at any meeting of the Association; provided that if no quorum is present, the meeting is adjourned to a date not more than seven (7) business days later, at which meeting the members present constitute a quorum.

14. MEETING PROCEDURE

- 14.1 After its constitution by reading the notice in terms of which it was convened, an Annual General Meeting commences with the reading and confirmation, by the signature of the Chairperson, of the minutes of the previous Annual General Meeting and of any subsequent special meetings.
- 14.2 Any objection to such minutes must be raised and determined prior to confirmation thereof.
- 14.3 A member may not, without the permission of the Chairperson, speak more than once on a motion or amendment thereof, but the mover of the motion or amendment may reply.

- 14.4 Except where otherwise provided in the Constitution, all matters are decided by a simple majority of the members present at the meeting.
- 14.5 In addition to his or her ordinary vote, the Chairperson has a casting vote in the event of a tie of votes.
- 14.6 If a meeting so resolves, the number of votes in favour of or against a motion must be recorded in the minutes, and, at the request of a member, the Chairperson must further direct that the vote of such member be likewise recorded.
- 14.7 A motion or amendment thereof must be seconded and, if so directed by the Chairperson, must be in writing.
- 14.8 A motion or amendment may not be withdrawn without the permission of the meeting.
- 14.9 The Chairperson may permit the discussion of an urgent and important matter of which notice was not duly given, provided that a motivation is supplied for such a matter to be added to the agenda and such discussion is unopposed.
- 14.10 A point of order may be raised when a member is of the opinion that –
- 14.10.1 there is a deviation from the matter under discussion;
- 14.10.2 a member has used insulting or repulsive language; or
- 14.10.3 discussions are contrary to the procedural rules.
- 14.11 The ruling of the Chairperson on a point of order or order of procedure is binding, unless immediately challenged by a member, in which event such a ruling must be submitted to the members for a vote without any discussions. The decision of the majority of the seating shall be final.
- 14.12 Anyone participating in a meeting who, after having been requested to refrain from disrespectful or disorderly conduct which may reasonably be interpreted to be disruptive, and continues to disobey a ruling of the chairperson, may be requested to leave the meeting and, if that person does not leave the meeting immediately, such person's participation in the meeting must be terminated.
- 14.13 Should a member's participation in a meeting be terminated as contemplated in subsection 14.12 the member must submit to such procedures as the Executive Committee may determine in order to be allowed to participate in future meetings or other activities of the Association.
